The Junior League of Denver announces the release of its 5th cookbook Colorado Classique on June 25, 2009.

Denver, Colorado- June 1, 2009- The Junior League of Denver, the non-profit organization whose focus it is improving the community through the health and education of women and children, announces the release of its fifth cookbook, Colorado Classique on June 25, 2009. Colorado Classique joins the Denver League's best selling cookbooks Colorado Cache, Colorado Collage, Crème de Colorado, and Colorado Colore. Since 1978, the Denver Junior League has sold over 2 million copies of its cookbooks.

The newest Denver Junior League Cookbook, Colorado Classique will emphasize fresh ingredients and healthy preparation techniques. The book's 200 recipes were triple-tested by 250 volunteers and are altitude adjusted. Each recipe includes its nutritional content confirmed by a registered dietician. Colorado Classique is organized into recipe classifications, which include gluten free, vegetarian and quick-fix recipes. Culinary tips are also provided by the Johnson and Wales University.

Denver's Junior League cookbooks have a Colorado focus. Locally renowned nature photographer, John Fielder, photographed the cover for Colorado Classique and the Souder Studios in Golden, Colorado did the food photography. A restaurant chapter highlights time-honored Colorado restaurants. Special features are also included on Colorado agricultural producers. Colorado Classique introduces beer flavor profiles provided by the Boulder Beer Company, Colorado's first microbrewery. The Denver Junior League's newest book has been Forest Stewardship Council certified for its environmental focus.

For more information on the release of Colorado Classique and the Junior League of Denver or to place and order for a cookbook, please visit our website at www.JLD.org. Colorado Classique will be available at local bookstores on June 25, 2009. Retailers, please contact Books West at 303-449-5995 to place an order for all of the league's cookbooks.
