"We are thrilled to host our Mile High Holiday Mart during our 100th Anniversary year! Our shopping event has been a Denver institution for nearly 40 years, and reflects the longevity of not only the Holiday Mart, but also of the JLD and our hardworking community volunteers," said Becky Schaub, JLD President.

The show boasts unique local and national vendors offering a wide variety of products, including housewares, specialty food items, jewelry, women's, men's and children's apparel, pet products, and much more! A large percentage of the merchants are local, so attendees are supporting local Colorado businesses. For those that don't like crowds, VIP Private Shopping tickets are available before the Mart opens to the public at noon on Fri.
